Take the Plunge !

..In the right direction!

About Us – SW2000 - Take the Plunge!

SW2000 is a UK, Oxford based consultancy owned and managed by Noel Hodson, who helped to pioneer Telework (working at home by computer).

It was registered by Noel in 1988 as successor to two firms he founded and developed:- (1) a 40 person partnership McVeigh Hodson – Blackstone Franks Accountants (Aylesbury & London) and (2) a national franchise Hodson & Associates – Morton Hodson & Co Business Expansion Specialists (38 UK Offices). To date, we have handled more than 5,000 cases.

SW2000 actively promotes innovation and advises businesses of all sizes, ranging from solo new start-ups at home to international major employers. SW2000 assembles expert teams as required, from a single advisor up to ten specialists. SW2000 has three units:

SW2000 – Telework Studies: We advise employers on setting up and managing Core & Dispersed Telework Teams. Publications - The Economics of Telework; Teleworking Explained; Telework Guidelines (Google for details).

SW2000 – Intelligent Transport: We promote Green CO2 saving projects to reduce road and other transport - including the futuristic FOODTUBES transport internet. Member of ISUFT (International Society for Underground Freight Transport). Google for details.
